

2024 AABB Annual Meeting Content Peer Reviewers – Financial Relationship Disclosures

In keeping with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) standards for commercial support, AABB asks everyone who is in position to control the content of a continuing medical education activity to disclose all relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies. ACCME defines an ineligible company as any entity producing, marketing, re-selling or distributing health care goods used on or by patients. (Providers of clinical services directly to patients are not ineligible companies). A relevant financial relationship is in any amount occurring within the previous 24 months. Below are the relevant financial relationships reported by the AABB Staff Peer Reviewers who are responsible for content peer reviewers for the 2024 AABB Annual Meeting.

These Peer Reviewers reports not having a relevant financial relationship with any ineligible companies during the past 24 months.
