

- Navigating Occupational Health Concepts During Reimbursement
  - This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Changing the Odds for Health Equity – Does Your Zip Code Matter?
  - This session has been awarded 1.5 contact hours of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Exploring Arthritis & Occupational Hand Injuries
  - This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Identifying Legal Concepts in Occupational Medicine
  - This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Examining the Mental Health Crisis
  - This session has been awarded 1.5 contact hours of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Speaking Up and Speaking Out on Mental Health
  - This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

■ Rethinking Suicide

- This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
- You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
- No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company except Craig Bryan, PsyD, ABPP, instructor for this educational event, a consultant for Oui Therapeutics, owner of Anduril, LLC, and received royalties from Guilford Publishing, Taylor and Francis Publishing, Spring Publishing and Oxford University Press. All of the relevant financial relationships have been mitigated.
- The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Coping with the Mental Health Impacts of Trauma
  - This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

■ Facing Your Fears and Building Mental Strength

- This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
- You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
- No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
- The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

■ Feeding Your Mental Health

- This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
- You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
- No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
- The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Connecting the Pieces Together and Creating Hope
  - This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hour of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - No one with the ability to control content of this activity has a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

- Rising to Your Best Self – Lead, Take Control, and Win
  - This session has been awarded 1.0 contact hours of continuing nursing education credit.
  - You must attend the entire presentation including Q&A and complete the session survey to be awarded continuing nursing education credit.
  - The Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.